Section 1: Practice Questions

Question 1 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

A shopkeeper (Charlotte) places a vintage watch in the shop window with a price tag of £22,000. A customer (Yasmine) enters the shop, places the cash on the counter, and demands to buy the item. The shopkeeper refuses to sell it. Is there a binding contract?

- A: Yes, because placing the item in the window was a unilateral offer that was accepted by the customer's cash payment.
- B: No, because the display of goods in a shop window is an invitation to treat, not an offer. Refusing to sell does not breach any contract (Fisher v Bell).
- C: Yes, because consumer protection laws force retailers to sell all displayed items automatically.
- D: No, because contracts for sales in shops require a written signed document.
- E: Yes, because the shopkeeper was silent when the customer entered, constituting acceptance.

Question 2 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

A builder (Edward) contractually agreed to construct a wall for a customer (Olivia) for £5,000. Halfway through the job, the builder states they cannot finish unless the customer pays an extra £1,000. The customer agrees. After completion, the customer refuses to pay the extra £1,000. Under Williams v Roffey Bros, is the promise to pay the extra £1,000 binding?

- A: No, because performing an existing contractual duty can never be good consideration.
- B: Yes, if the customer obtained a practical benefit (such as avoiding a penalty clause to a third party) and there was no economic duress.
- C: No, because a promise to pay more must be approved by the County Court under CPR regulations.
- D: Yes, because oral contracts are automatically binding regardless of consideration.
- E: No, because it violates Section 52 of the Law of Property Act 1925.

Question 3 — [FLK1 / Dispute Resolution]

A claimant (Arthur) makes a valid CPR Part 36 settlement offer to the defendant (Xavier) of £220,000. The defendant rejects the offer. The case goes to trial, and the claimant wins, obtaining judgment of £252,999. What is the primary costs consequence under Part 36?

- A: The claimant must pay the defendant's costs on the indemnity basis.
- B: The defendant must pay the claimant's costs on the indemnity basis, plus interest on those costs, from the expiry of the relevant offer period.
- C: The court will split the trial costs equally between both parties.
- D: All costs recovery is capped at the Small Claims Track limit.
- E: The defendant is immune to costs penalties because they defended the claim in good faith.

Question 4 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

A shopkeeper (Wendy) places a vintage watch in the shop window with a price tag of £250,000. A customer (Kevin) enters the shop, places the cash on the counter, and demands to buy the item. The shopkeeper refuses to sell it. Is there a binding contract?

- A: Yes, because placing the item in the window was a unilateral offer that was accepted by the customer's cash payment.
- B: No, because the display of goods in a shop window is an invitation to treat, not an offer. Refusing to sell does not breach any contract (Fisher v Bell).
- C: Yes, because consumer protection laws force retailers to sell all displayed items automatically.
- D: No, because contracts for sales in shops require a written signed document.
- E: Yes, because the shopkeeper was silent when the customer entered, constituting acceptance.

Question 5 — [FLK1 / Business Law and Practice]

A director of Pinnacle Ventures Ltd (a private company limited by shares) wants to allot new shares to a new investor (Arthur) to raise capital of £25,000. The company has only one class of ordinary shares. Under the Companies Act 2006, which of the following is correct regarding the director's authority to allot these shares?

- A: The director has automatic statutory authority to allot the shares without shareholder approval under Section 550, unless restricted by the articles.
- B: The director must always obtain authorization by ordinary resolution of the shareholders under Section 551.
- C: The director must obtain authorization by special resolution of the shareholders to allot any shares.
- D: The director requires the approval of the Board of Trade before allotting any class of shares.
- E: Authority is only required if the allotment would cause the company to exceed its authorised share capital as stated in the memorandum.

Question 6 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

A shopkeeper (Edward) places a designer coat in the shop window with a price tag of £220,000. A customer (Alice) enters the shop, places the cash on the counter, and demands to buy the item. The shopkeeper refuses to sell it. Is there a binding contract?

- A: Yes, because placing the item in the window was a unilateral offer that was accepted by the customer's cash payment.
- B: No, because the display of goods in a shop window is an invitation to treat, not an offer. Refusing to sell does not breach any contract (Fisher v Bell).
- C: Yes, because consumer protection laws force retailers to sell all displayed items automatically.
- D: No, because contracts for sales in shops require a written signed document.
- E: Yes, because the shopkeeper was silent when the customer entered, constituting acceptance.

Question 7 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

A shopkeeper (Laura) places a laptop in the shop window with a price tag of £15,000. A customer (Samuel) enters the shop, places the cash on the counter, and demands to buy the item. The shopkeeper refuses to sell it. Is there a binding contract?

- A: Yes, because placing the item in the window was a unilateral offer that was accepted by the customer's cash payment.
- B: No, because the display of goods in a shop window is an invitation to treat, not an offer. Refusing to sell does not breach any contract (Fisher v Bell).
- C: Yes, because consumer protection laws force retailers to sell all displayed items automatically.
- D: No, because contracts for sales in shops require a written signed document.
- E: Yes, because the shopkeeper was silent when the customer entered, constituting acceptance.

Question 8 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

Nora offered to sell a yacht to Penelope for £5,000. Penelope replied: 'I accept your offer, but I will pay £4,500.' Nora did not respond. Two days later, Penelope wrote to Nora saying: 'I accept your original offer of £5,000.' Is there a binding contract between Nora and Penelope?

- A: Yes, because the second letter constituted a valid acceptance of the original offer.
- B: Yes, because the original offer remained open and had not been revoked by the offeror.
- C: No, because the counter-offer of the lower price killed the original offer, meaning it could no longer be accepted.
- D: No, because a contract for sale of goods must be made in writing signed by both parties.
- E: Yes, because the offeror's silence on the counter-offer constituted acceptance of the lower price.

Question 9 — [FLK1 / Dispute Resolution]

A claimant (Caleb) makes a valid CPR Part 36 settlement offer to the defendant (Harry) of £350,000. The defendant rejects the offer. The case goes to trial, and the claimant wins, obtaining judgment of £402,499. What is the primary costs consequence under Part 36?

- A: The claimant must pay the defendant's costs on the indemnity basis.
- B: The defendant must pay the claimant's costs on the indemnity basis, plus interest on those costs, from the expiry of the relevant offer period.
- C: The court will split the trial costs equally between both parties.
- D: All costs recovery is capped at the Small Claims Track limit.
- E: The defendant is immune to costs penalties because they defended the claim in good faith.

Question 10 — [FLK1 / Dispute Resolution]

A claimant (Kevin) has applied for summary judgment against a defendant (Xavier) under CPR Part 24. What is the test that the court must apply to determine whether summary judgment should be granted?

- A: The claimant must prove the case beyond all reasonable doubt.
- B: The defendant has no real prospect of successfully defending the claim, and there is no other compelling reason why the case should be disposed of at trial.
- C: The value of the claim must be less than £10,000.
- D: The defendant has failed to acknowledge service of the claim form within 14 days.
- E: The dispute involves questions of international law.

Question 11 — [FLK1 / Dispute Resolution]

A claimant (Yasmine) has brought an action against a defendant (Samuel) in the County Court for breach of contract, claiming £250,000 in damages. The defendant has filed a defense. In accordance with the Civil Procedure Rules (CPR), which track will this claim be allocated to?

- A: Small Claims Track
- B: Fast Track
- C: Intermediate Track
- D: Multi-Track
- E: Commercial Court Track

Question 12 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

Amelia offered to sell a piece of machinery to Charlie for £1,500. Charlie replied: 'I accept your offer, but I will pay £1,350.' Amelia did not respond. Two days later, Charlie wrote to Amelia saying: 'I accept your original offer of £1,500.' Is there a binding contract between Amelia and Charlie?

- A: Yes, because the second letter constituted a valid acceptance of the original offer.
- B: Yes, because the original offer remained open and had not been revoked by the offeror.
- C: No, because the counter-offer of the lower price killed the original offer, meaning it could no longer be accepted.
- D: No, because a contract for sale of goods must be made in writing signed by both parties.
- E: Yes, because the offeror's silence on the counter-offer constituted acceptance of the lower price.

Question 13 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

Matthew offered to sell a agricultural tractor to Philip for £500. Philip replied: 'I accept your offer, but I will pay £450.' Matthew did not respond. Two days later, Philip wrote to Matthew saying: 'I accept your original offer of £500.' Is there a binding contract between Matthew and Philip?

- A: Yes, because the second letter constituted a valid acceptance of the original offer.
- B: Yes, because the original offer remained open and had not been revoked by the offeror.
- C: No, because the counter-offer of the lower price killed the original offer, meaning it could no longer be accepted.
