Section 1: Practice Questions

Question 1 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

A shopkeeper (William) places a designer coat in the shop window with a price tag of £75,000. A customer (Olivia) enters the shop, places the cash on the counter, and demands to buy the item. The shopkeeper refuses to sell it. Is there a binding contract?

- A: Yes, because placing the item in the window was a unilateral offer that was accepted by the customer's cash payment.
- B: No, because the display of goods in a shop window is an invitation to treat, not an offer. Refusing to sell does not breach any contract (Fisher v Bell).
- C: Yes, because consumer protection laws force retailers to sell all displayed items automatically.
- D: No, because contracts for sales in shops require a written signed document.
- E: Yes, because the shopkeeper was silent when the customer entered, constituting acceptance.

Question 2 — [FLK1 / Dispute Resolution]

A claimant (Beatrice) has brought an action against a defendant (Frank) in the County Court for breach of contract, claiming £350,000 in damages. The defendant has filed a defense. In accordance with the Civil Procedure Rules (CPR), which track will this claim be allocated to?

- A: Small Claims Track
- B: Fast Track
- C: Intermediate Track
- D: Multi-Track
- E: Commercial Court Track

Question 3 — [FLK1 / Tort Law]

An employee of Beacon Solutions LLP negligently injures a customer (Ian) while driving a company delivery van to make a scheduled delivery. The customer sues Beacon Solutions LLP. What is the legal doctrine that allows the employer to be held liable, and what is the test?

- A: Res Ipsa Loquitur; requires showing the van was in a defective condition.
- B: Vicarious liability; requires showing that the employee committed a tort in the course of their employment.
- C: Strict liability; requires showing the employer acted with malicious intent.
- D: Privity of liability; requires a signed agreement between the employer and the customer.
- E: Contributory liability; requires allocating the claim to the Multi-Track.

Question 4 — [FLK1 / Business Law and Practice]

Prior to the formal incorporation of Zephyr Services LLP, a promoter (Kevin) signed a contract 'on behalf of the company' to purchase machinery from a supplier. The company is now incorporated. Which of the following best describes the liability of Kevin and the company on this pre-incorporation contract?

- A: The company is automatically bound by the contract upon incorporation, and the promoter is released.
- B: The contract is completely void and unenforceable by any party.
- C: The promoter is personally liable and entitled under the contract, subject to any agreement to the contrary, under Section 51 of the Companies Act 2006.
- D: The company and the promoter are jointly and severally liable automatically.
- E: The company can unilaterally ratify the contract without the supplier's agreement.

Question 5 — [FLK1 / Dispute Resolution]

A claimant (Fredrick) has brought an action against a defendant (Beatrice) in the County Court for breach of contract, claiming £120,000 in damages. The defendant has filed a defense. In accordance with the Civil Procedure Rules (CPR), which track will this claim be allocated to?

- A: Small Claims Track
- B: Fast Track
- C: Intermediate Track
- D: Multi-Track
- E: Commercial Court Track

Question 6 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

A shopkeeper (Laura) places a laptop in the shop window with a price tag of £15,000. A customer (Isabella) enters the shop, places the cash on the counter, and demands to buy the item. The shopkeeper refuses to sell it. Is there a binding contract?

- A: Yes, because placing the item in the window was a unilateral offer that was accepted by the customer's cash payment.
- B: No, because the display of goods in a shop window is an invitation to treat, not an offer. Refusing to sell does not breach any contract (Fisher v Bell).
- C: Yes, because consumer protection laws force retailers to sell all displayed items automatically.
- D: No, because contracts for sales in shops require a written signed document.
- E: Yes, because the shopkeeper was silent when the customer entered, constituting acceptance.

Question 7 — [FLK1 / Dispute Resolution]

A claimant (Thomas) has applied for summary judgment against a defendant (Lucas) under CPR Part 24. What is the test that the court must apply to determine whether summary judgment should be granted?

- A: The claimant must prove the case beyond all reasonable doubt.
- B: The defendant has no real prospect of successfully defending the claim, and there is no other compelling reason why the case should be disposed of at trial.
- C: The value of the claim must be less than £10,000.
- D: The defendant has failed to acknowledge service of the claim form within 14 days.
- E: The dispute involves questions of international law.

Question 8 — [FLK1 / Dispute Resolution]

A claimant (Mila) has brought an action against a defendant (Charlie) in the County Court for breach of contract, claiming £350,000 in damages. The defendant has filed a defense. In accordance with the Civil Procedure Rules (CPR), which track will this claim be allocated to?

- A: Small Claims Track
- B: Fast Track
- C: Intermediate Track
- D: Multi-Track
- E: Commercial Court Track

Question 9 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

Kate offered to sell a vintage watch to Caleb for £20,000. Caleb replied: 'I accept your offer, but I will pay £18,000.' Kate did not respond. Two days later, Caleb wrote to Kate saying: 'I accept your original offer of £20,000.' Is there a binding contract between Kate and Caleb?

- A: Yes, because the second letter constituted a valid acceptance of the original offer.
- B: Yes, because the original offer remained open and had not been revoked by the offeror.
- C: No, because the counter-offer of the lower price killed the original offer, meaning it could no longer be accepted.
- D: No, because a contract for sale of goods must be made in writing signed by both parties.
- E: Yes, because the offeror's silence on the counter-offer constituted acceptance of the lower price.

Question 10 — [FLK1 / Dispute Resolution]

A claimant (Charlie) makes a valid CPR Part 36 settlement offer to the defendant (Diana) of £45,000. The defendant rejects the offer. The case goes to trial, and the claimant wins, obtaining judgment of £51,749. What is the primary costs consequence under Part 36?

- A: The claimant must pay the defendant's costs on the indemnity basis.
- B: The defendant must pay the claimant's costs on the indemnity basis, plus interest on those costs, from the expiry of the relevant offer period.
- C: The court will split the trial costs equally between both parties.
- D: All costs recovery is capped at the Small Claims Track limit.
- E: The defendant is immune to costs penalties because they defended the claim in good faith.

Question 11 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

Georgia offered to sell a delivery van to William for £500. William replied: 'I accept your offer, but I will pay £450.' Georgia did not respond. Two days later, William wrote to Georgia saying: 'I accept your original offer of £500.' Is there a binding contract between Georgia and William?

- A: Yes, because the second letter constituted a valid acceptance of the original offer.
- B: Yes, because the original offer remained open and had not been revoked by the offeror.
- C: No, because the counter-offer of the lower price killed the original offer, meaning it could no longer be accepted.
- D: No, because a contract for sale of goods must be made in writing signed by both parties.
- E: Yes, because the offeror's silence on the counter-offer constituted acceptance of the lower price.

Question 12 — [FLK1 / Business Law and Practice]

Prior to the formal incorporation of Summit Logistics Ltd, a promoter (Fiona) signed a contract 'on behalf of the company' to purchase machinery from a supplier. The company is now incorporated. - A: The company is automatically bound by the contract upon incorporation, and the promoter is released.
- B: The contract is completely void and unenforceable by any party.
- C: The promoter is personally liable and entitled under the contract, subject to any agreement to the contrary, under Section 51 of the Companies Act 2006.
- D: The company and the promoter are jointly and severally liable automatically.
- E: The company can unilaterally ratify the contract without the supplier's agreement.

Question 13 — [FLK1 / Dispute Resolution]

A claimant (Matthew) has applied for summary judgment against a defendant (Yasmine) under CPR Part 24. What is the test that the court must apply to determine whether summary judgment should be granted?

- A: The claimant must prove the case beyond all reasonable doubt.
- B: The defendant has no real prospect of successfully defending the claim, and there is no other compelling reason why the case should be disposed of at trial.
- C: The value of the claim must be less than £10,000.
- D: The defendant has failed to acknowledge service of the claim form within 14 days.
- E: The dispute involves questions of international law.

Question 14 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

Frank offered to sell a vintage watch to Katelyn for £5,000. Katelyn replied: 'I accept your offer, but I will pay £4,500.' Frank did not respond. Two days later, Katelyn wrote to Frank saying: 'I accept your original offer of £5,000.' Is there a binding contract between Frank and Katelyn?

- A: Yes, because the second letter constituted a valid acceptance of the original offer.
- B: Yes, because the original offer remained open and had not been revoked by the offeror.

- E: The company can unilaterally ratify the contract without the supplier's agreement.

Question 16 — [FLK1 / Contract Law]

A seller (Caleb) negligently makes a false statement of fact regarding the turnover of a business to a buyer (Alice), inducing them to buy it. The buyer subsequently discovers the fraud. Which of the following describes the remedies available under the Misrepresentation Act 1967?

- A: The contract is automatically void, and the seller must be prosecuted criminally.
- B: Rescission of the contract and/or damages under Section 2(1) of the Act.
- C: The buyer can only recover damages and has no right to rescind the contract under any circumstances.
- D: The contract is binding, and no remedy is available since the buyer should have checked the accounts (caveat emptor).
- E: The seller is required to perform specific performance of the turnover projection.

Question 17 — [FLK1 / Tort Law]

A driver (Kate) crashes into a pedestrian (Mia) who is crossing the street, causing physical injuries. To establish negligence, the claimant must show that the defendant owed them a duty of care. How does the court establish if a duty of care exists for physical damage caused by positive actions?

- A: By applying the three-stage Caparo test including fair, just, and reasonable criteria in every case.
- B: By finding that the case falls within an established duty category (such as road users to other road users) where a duty is automatically owed (Robinson v Chief Constable of West Yorkshire).
- C: By checking if the defendant signed a voluntary duty registration form.
- D: By proving the defendant intended to cause physical harm.
- E: By allocating the claim to the Fast Track under CPR guidelines.

Question 18 — [FLK1 / Tort Law]
